Scenic Views. Modern Living.

The Ancaster is truly superb. Large front windows in the living room invites in the warm sun. The eating area off the kitchen is full of windows, flooding the room with light, it's easy to imagine yourself relaxing on early mornings with a hot mug of coffee warming your hands. A centre island in the generous family area invites conversation and laughter among friends and family. The formal dining room is tucked off to the side, perfect for quiet dinners or extra special occasions. The primary bedroom is complete with ample closet space and ensuite bathroom, with two other comfortably-sized bedrooms just around the corner for family or overnight guests. With just over 1800 square feet, this home has something for everyone.
